ED POSH

HUBERT BUEHLER

.....over the years I have been asked by my friends and neighbors "when are you taking us to your home country (Bavaria/Germany) and to the Oktoberfest in Munich"?

Here is your chance to join me and my wife Jacqueline (a Belgian native) as we host a trip to my home country Bavaria/Germany.

The trip is conducted under the sponsorship of the ED POSH SCHOLARSHIP FUND, a local scholarship raising almost $500,000 for 66 students over the last 15 years. A small portion ($100) per participant will benefit the Fund.

I have been active in the ED POSH SCHOLARSHIP FUND for a number of years running the annual "ED POSH SHOOTOUT" a golf and dinner fundraising event at the Village Links of Glen Ellyn and as a board member...

DAY BY DAY ITINERARY:

Day 1: Saturday, September 28, 2013

Depart USA for overnight flight to Munich.

Day 2: Sunday, September 29, 2013

Morning arrival at Munich airport. After clearing customs we board our coach for approximately a 1-hour-drive to Augsburg, home of the famous Fugger family. Tour Augsburg with English-speaking guide where you'll see 2000 years of history passing by within 2 hours. Sights include the magnificent Maximilian-straße with the city hall, the old craftsmen town, the Fuggerei and the Brecht house (memorial for one of Germany's most famous writers). Welcome Dinner tonight. Overnight at the famous "Drei Mohren" Steigenberger Hotel Augsburg. (D)

Day 3: Monday, September 30, 2013

Following breakfast at the hotel we partake on a city tour of Munich, the capital of Bavaria. You'll see the Olympic stadium with Olympic Park and Olympic Tower, the BMW-world, the Opera, the glamorous shopping mall Maximilian-straße and watch the famous Glockenspiel at the Marienplatz. In the afternoon you'll visit the famous Bavarian Oktoberfest! We have guaranteed seats inside the "Augustiner" festival tent including 2 litres of beer and half a chicken. Enjoy the original Bavarian festival atmosphere for a couple of hours. (B, D)

Day 4: Tuesday, October 1, 2013

After breakfast you'll leave the hotel for a trip to Oberammergau which is famous for the Passion Play and woodcarving. You'll have the chance to get a look inside the famous Passion Play Theater during a guided tour and also learn some very interesting facts about the play which takes place every 10 years! In the afternoon you'll leave Oberammergau heading for Garmisch-Partenkirchen. There you'll have some leisure time. For example you can take the gondola to go up the Zugspitze- Germany's highest mountain. On the top you have an amazing view above the Alps. Garmisch is also famous for the Winter Olympic Games. Dinner tonight and overnight (B, D)

Day 5: Wednesday, October 2, 2013

Following breakfast enjoy a day's excursion to Füssen to visit King Ludwig's fairy-tale castles Neuschwanstein and Linderhof. On your way back you will stop at the monastery of Ettal and the famous church Wieskirche. Dinner tonight and overnight (B, D)

Day 6: Thursday, October 3, 2013

Checking out after breakfast we head for Salzburg in Austria. On our way we will pass the Chiemsee, also well-known as the "Bavarian Sea." We'll stop in Berchtesgaden, which is framed by six formidable mountain ranges and home to Germany's second-highest mountain, the Watzmann (2713m) and home to the pristine Königssee, perhaps Germany's most photogenic lake. The lake is noted for its clear water and is advertised as the cleanest lake in Germany. For this reason, only electric driven passenger ships, rowing and pedal boats have been permitted on the lake since 1909.* This area of Germany has peaceful Alpine villages and the mountain-top Eagle's Nest, a lodge built for Hitler. Here you'll have the opportunity to visit to Adolf Hitler's "Eagle Nest" *source:Wikipedia. Check-in and overnight at the 4-star Hotel Hubertushof Salzburg for two nights stay. (B,D)

Day 7: Friday, October 4, 2013

Today enjoy a guided tour of Salzburg, the fourth largest city in Austria, birthplace of 18th-century composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and the setting for parts for the Sound of Music. During a guided City Tour, you will get to know the typical Austrian way of life. In the afternoon you will have some leisure time which you can use for sending the last postcards or buying some souvenirs. In the evening you will join the gala-dinner-show "Sound of Music". (B,D)

Day 8: Saturday, October 5, 2013

Today we check-out and head to the airport for our return flight home. (B)
